DON'T EAT PETE

DATE NIGHT CHOCOLATE GAMES INSTRUCTIONS

designed by www.messestomemories.com

DON'T EAT PETE

Materials Needed: Printable Game Board, M&M's

How To Play: Place one M&M candy in each square. Send the youngest player out of the room while the next oldest player chooses one candy piece to be "PETE." When Pete is chose, the group yells, "C'MON BACK!" The player returns and eats the candies one at a time; while the group cheers him on.

But, the minute he touches "PETE" the group yells "DON'T EAT PETE!" The player must stop, no matter how many M&M's have been eaten. His turn is over, the board is reset and the next player leaves the room.

THE KIT KAT GAME

Materials Needed: Kit Kat, Dice and 2 Butter Knives

How To Play: Players roll and pass, roll and pass. FAST! As soon as a 5 is rolled, that player stops rolling and immediately grabs the knife and attempts to open and eat the candy bar with nothing but the knives. If hands are used, his turn is over.

Other players keep rolling in hopes of getting a 5. When another player rolls a 5, they immediately call "FIVE!" The first eater must drop everything and the new player who rolled a 5 takes over.

Game is over when the candy bar is gone!
