"CAN 'O DATE" IDEAS: {CUT APART & PLACE IN DATE CAN.}

START A SWEETHEART JOURNAL! Cut out this poem and place it in an empty notebook or journal and start writing!

Sweetheart Journal

*This little book has a purpose for you,
Its use should be shared between two.
Simply write a love letter, a poem, or note
To the one you adore, love, and often dote.
Then, hide this book for your sweetheart to find
And wait for a reply that will tickle your mind.
Remember, be creative and have fun
You have only your spouse's heart to be won.*

Creative ideas could include: games (the dot game, tic tac toe), poems, letters, pictures, notes, comments about dates...

BOAT FUN: Have each person design and make a boat out of things around the house. Then, take them to a river/stream and race them.

CUPCAKERY: Walk to a local bakery or cupcake shop. There is something about walking to a bakery with someone you care about . . . maybe because I am obsessed with food? If you do not live next to a bakery then surprise your sweetheart by parking a few blocks away and packing a backpack with a blanket, games, fun drinks... If you go to a cupcake shop make sure you get a few varieties and share them.

LOVE ON THE RUN: Pick a random box or container (you could decorate it if you are really ambitious). Put items in the box that you could do on the date (food, games, tickets, ideas . . . ). After the date give the box/container to your partner and tell them that it is their turn!

"CAN 'O DATE" IDEAS: {CUT APART & PLACE IN DATE CAN.}

UMBRELLA FUN: Go shopping for umbrellas. Choose a few stores that you think would sell fun umbrellas and stop in. Don't be shy...open all of them inside. It will make you feel like kids again.

"THRIFTY TRENDS" DATE: Live it up! Buy a new game, movie, book, or sporting equipment that you could use on your date all for under $10. Visit a local thrift store (yes, they may stink) and pick up some new activities. We have done this a few times and continue to benefit from our cheap purchases. It is a great way to save money and Live it up! :)

"GREETING CARD" DATE: Have you ever wanted to accomplish something productive while on a date? Do you send out birthday/anniversary/holiday cards to family members or friends? If so, go to the Dollar Store and quickly pick out the total number of cards you need for the year. Don't think about each card, make it random (i.e. giving a "Congratulations on your 90th Birthday" to someone your age or "You're a special boy" to your dad). The more random . . . the more giggles you will later have. Once at home assign a card to each person and file away. Have fun!

LIVING ROOM CAMP-OUT: Get anything you have that makes you feel like your camping out and set it up in your living room (i.e. camping chairs, turn off the lights and use flashlights, blanket . . . ). Make tin foil dinners in your oven for the dinner. Search the internet for unique tin foil dinner recipes.

"WISHING WELL" DATE: Get a roll of pennies or gather pennies from around the house. Go to a fountain and make wishes together.

FREE MOVIE: Check out movies from the library. They have a good selection and they are free!

"CAN 'O DATE" IDEAS: {CUT APART & PLACE IN DATE CAN.}

RANDOM WORD DATE: At the start of your date ask your partner to come up with a random word. It can be as long or as short as they desire. Using the following list (or make up your own) take the word and assign each letter of the word to an item on the list. Do not change the order of the word or the items to keep it spontaneous! Then, come up with a way to fulfill each item that begins with the letter you assigned to it. For example if your partner came up with the word, "tomato", you could wear (T) turtlenecks on your date or wear teal-colored clothes. You could eat at a restaurant that starts with the letter "O" or eat something that starts with that letter. If the word your partner comes up with is longer or shorter than your list you could repeat an activity or take something out.

T O M A T O

What to wear? "T"

Eat at a restaurant or make your own food: "O"

Visit a place: "M"

Activity: "A"

Conversational topics: "T"

Treat: "O"

HOT CHOCOLATE PARTY: On a cold winter day start by going outside for a walk, build a snowman, or stay inside and watch a wintry movie. After you come back or while you are watching the movie, have a hot chocolate party. Ideas: provide a few flavors of hot chocolate, have cinnamon sticks in a side bowl so guests can stir their hot chocolate, or you could make chocolate dipped spoons for stirring. After you dip each spoon in chocolate, sprinkle something fun on the chocolate like nuts, candy cane pieces, toffee chunks, or sprinkles. Offer marshmallows, cool whip, or ice cream for the top. If you have fun winter mugs or serving items (red table cloth . . . ) use them to make it more festive. You could even decorate the table with snowman décor, or play holiday music . . .

"CAN 'O DATE" IDEAS: {CUT APART & PLACE IN DATE CAN.}

VIDEO DATE: Have a video date where you take turns asking each other a series of questions . . . and record it! This would be a fabulous gift to your children in the future. It may even be fun for the two of you to re-watch. Haven't you ever wondered what your parents' body movements or facial expressions were like when they were your age? Record something now because you never know when the chance will be gone. It should be fun!

You could come up with your own questions or use ours. Have fun and be creative!

- 1. What was your home town like?*
- 2. How well did you get along with your siblings, parents, and teachers?*
- 3. If you could re-do anything from the past what would it be?*
- 4. What were you like in grade school, junior high, and high school?*
- 5. What are some of your happiest memories from your childhood?*
- 6. List 4 dreams (2 practical and 2 fun).*
- 7. List 2 fears.*
- 8. What are 2 of your favorite breakfasts, lunches, dinners, snacks, and desserts?*
- 9. Name 3 hobbies.*
- 10. How did you meet mom/dad?*
- 11. Name three of your favorite traits of mom/dad?*
- 12. List two of your favorite traits of each child or share your favorite memory of each child.*
- 13. What is the craziest thing you have ever done?*
- 14. What is your favorite color, animal, book, movie...*
- 15. What is your happiest memory?*
- 16. What was college like?*
- 17. List three pieces of advice.*
- 18. Anything else?*

"MESSAGE IN A BOTTLE" BUBBLE BATH: Buy a decorative small colorful bottle with a cork. Write a nice love letter on a piece of paper with burnt corners. Roll the paper, put it in the bottle, insert the cork and throw it into a bath, full of water, essential oils and bubbles. You could join your spouse . . . .

THE DOLLAR DATE: Go to the dollar store and each of you pick out an activity to do on a date. Don't peek until you are through the checkout line. For even MORE fun ideas . . . check out the post below . . .

"CAN 'O DATE" IDEAS: {CUT APART & PLACE IN DATE CAN.}

LETTER DATE: Need a random date night idea that will keep things spontaneous? Ask your date to pick a letter in the alphabet. With that letter base all food, activities, dress, and conversations.

Example - if your date picked the letter "A" to fulfill the Food category, you could eat apples (find a unique way to cook them like grilling or baking), artichokes, drink ale (ginger ale), or go to Applebees. Activity- you could incorporate astronomy, aliens (watch a movie, create some fake alien markings to trick your kids), do something athletic or artistic... Dress- wear something your ancestors would, be naked and explore anatomy (just kidding), or wear something abstract (non-matching). Conversations- talk about automobiles, apes, art, the army... This date could very easily be done at home! Feel free to use a dictionary.

CHOCOLATE BOWLS: Make Chocolate Bowls to hold individual servings of ice cream. Get small blow up balloons from the store and blow some up (one per bowl). Melt some chocolate (chocolate chips work great) in a bowl in the microwave (check and stir it every 30 seconds). Next, pour a little puddle (2 inches in diameter) of chocolate onto some wax paper or a small plate to act as the stand. Then, dip the balloon into the chocolate a few times to create your bowl shape. Allow it to dry on top of the stand. Once it is dry, make a small slit in the balloon and slowly allow the air to escape. Remove the shriveled balloon and serve ice cream in your bowl. Catch - your date is to actually DO all of this together! ☺ Then eat & enjoy your yummy treat!!

OUR FIRST DATE: Repeat your first date as closely as you can.

PHOTOGRAPH SAFARI: Take a digital camera and go on a "photo safari." Drive/walk around town, taking pictures of places where you shared fond memories, or sites that were comical. Make sure you are actually IN most of the pictures. Don't be afraid to ask strangers to take some of the pictures for you. Better yet, invite another couple to come along & join in your adventure!

"CAN 'O DATE" IDEAS: {CUT APART & PLACE IN DATE CAN.}

PUDDING PICTONARY: If you are having a date as a couple, ask a close friend to write up 20 words on 20 different pieces of paper and divide them into two envelopes (Make sure you provide your friend with the supplies for convenience!). Then, make a few colors of instant pudding for that night's game. You don't have to use all your milk up. Using half water and half milk or just half of each pudding mix works as well and still tastes good. Then each person can take turns guessing what the other one is drawing. Put a time limit on each drawing to make it more exciting. If you are playing with four players then you could have one team write down words for the other . . .

FONDUE PARTY: You can use small crock pots, fondue pots, or a microwavable bowl that you can continuously re-heat. Plan a meal around sauces that you would want to dip foods into. i.e. cheese sauce (dip- breads, vegetables, meats); chocolate (dip- cheesecake, marshmallows, cookies, strawberries, bananas, pineapple, pretzels); broth or sauce for meats; marinara sauce (dip- sausage, cheesy garlic bread, pizza without sauce, bread sticks . . . ). It is probably easier if you do this with other couples as it can get expensive and you'll have more of a variety. If you do it with one other couple you could assign one dip with the appropriate sides per couple.

POPCORN FUN: Pop a few bags of popcorn and allow each person to come up with 10 ways they can use popcorn. If you get desperate use the Internet!

SOAP SCULPTURES: Have a soap carving contest.

"I CAN FLY" DATE: Check out a book on paper airplanes, practice making them, and have flying contests.

ORIGAMI DATE: Check out a book on origami and fold away! Make an Asian treat to accompany the fun!

"CAN 'O DATE" IDEAS: {CUT APART & PLACE IN DATE CAN.}

HOMEMADE DONUTS: Buy the smallest & cheapest biscuits in a can you can find at the grocery store. You should have the rest of the ingredients. Fill a frying pan with about a ½ inch- 1 inch of vegetable oil or canola oil if you have it. Turn a burner onto medium heat and let the oil heat up. Meanwhile, take the biscuits and a water bottle cap and punch holes into each biscuit. Save both the rings and the holes. When the oil is hot enough drop the rings and holes into the oil and cook until golden brown. Flip and repeat. Make sure you don't overcook them. Make toppings to dip or spread onto your donuts (i.e. cinnamon and sugar, powdered sugar, chocolate icing, maple icing). You should probably have all toppings prepared before you start cooking your donuts. You can also use nuts, sprinkles . . .

"MISSING INSTRUCTIONS" DATE: This is a fun group date. Before the date ask someone who will not be attending the date for delicious dinner ideas. Then ask them to type up the recipes making sure to include all the ingredients but leaving out chunks of instructions. For example- Don't tell the group what any of the recipes are called. If you are making a salad you could leave out what to do with a can of beans you are supposed to add . . . The couple won't know if they should rinse the beans, blend them . . . Put the recipes missing parts in one envelope and the recipes with all the information in a second envelope so that after you have made the food you could check how well you did. I have done this and the food all tasted great even though it was all made differently than how it was supposed to be made. We went to the grocery store to purchase as a group as part of the date. P.S. Definitely do something nice for your friend that helped you out! ☺

TIME CAPSULE: Make a time capsule of you and your spouse to give to your future children. If you can spare a few dollars put them in for a "fun family" activity!

"GETTING TO KNOW YOU" DATE: Look up some fun personality tests on-line.

"NEVER TOO OLD" DATE: Write your parents "thank you" notes and include your hand prints! Tell them that you expect them to hang your art pieces on their fridge like old times! ☺

SATURDAY MORNING CARTOONS: Check out old cartoons from your childhood and make your favorite childhood treats! Have fun reminiscing!

ICE CREAM SCULPTURES: Give each person a half gallon of ice cream and a variety of kitchen utensils. Then, have an ice cream carving contest. Depending on your competitiveness have a neighbor be the judge.

"I'D CHEWS YOU" DATE: Go to the grocery store and pick out different flavored gums to taste test together. Each take turns guessing the flavors and sharing them too!

"MODEL HOME" DATE: Find your dream home online and then go and tour the model together and get excited about one day owning your dream home. You could also locate a couple different model homes in your area and tour them all. If you are brave enough, you could dress up as a couple with a LOT of money, use accents, and pretend you are a filthy rich foreign couple looking for a vacation home. ☺

BLACKOUT NIGHT: Have a blackout night where you turn off everything - cell phones, computers, even lights . . . all the way off! Light some candles and play some music and try to do as many things as you can by candlelight. Ideas: reading together, playing a card game, giving massages . . . whatever seems fun, easy, and relaxing.

"CAN 'O DATE" IDEAS: {CUT APART & PLACE IN DATE CAN.}

MUD FOOTBALL: Get a group of friends together and play touch mud football. You can create jerseys for each other using your nicknames. Make sure to take team pictures after the game and each couple gets to spray each other down with the hose to get all the gritty mud off. You can also have a tail gate party complete with all of the football stadium grub.

POETRY NIGHT: Have a night filled with poetry. Give your spouse an invitation in the morning quoting your favorite poet (like Keates). Then go to a poetry reading that night. You could even have a "tea party" afterwards including your favorite beverage, mini sandwiches, mini pastries, and other finger foods.

BUBBLE BLOWING CONTEST: Use a bubble wand, bubble gum, and your hands with dish soap. Best 2 out of 3 wins a prize.

BREAKFAST IN BED: Surprise your spouse with his/her favorite breakfast foods in bed. Who says dates ALWAYS have to be at night?

NEW CUISINE: Cook a meal together. Find a recipe that you are both excited to try out. You can either go shopping to get the food today {make it part of the date} OR if you plan ahead . . . you can grab the ingredients beforehand. Have fun being CHEFS together! P.S. Why not make fun little Chef Hats out of paper & throw on some aprons! ☺

PLAY GUESS THAT TUNE: Turn on the radio and hit shuffle. See who can name the most bands/song titles.

PERSONAL PHOTO SHOOT: Have a photo session! Take pictures of each other! When they are printed - put them on your desk, in your car, or wallet.

NATURE HIKE: When is the last time you actually explored the outdoors? Hike to a nearby lake and skip rocks together. If you don't have a lake . . . look online to find the best "nature" spot in your area & go explore!

BLINDFOLD NIGHT: Make banana splits blindfolded (messy but fun)! Afterwards, I am sure you can think of other fun things to do blindfolded! ☺
