

Spice Rack

to give some extra "spice" to your love life

1. Buy any spice rack that has clear containers with lids.
2. Dump out spices (you can save them to use in the kitchen) and clean the containers.
3. Decide on your "spices." You can use outfits or props that you already have, buy outfits (there are tons online), or get creative. Here are a few ideas I have done.

Spice Name	Clues	Outfit/Props
Tool belt Diva	Nails	Tool Belt
Naughty nurse	Cotton Balls	Nurse Outfit
Red Hot Spice	Red Hots	Red Nighty
Suns Dancer	Cheer Pom Poms	Phoenix Suns Tank
Daisy Duke	Hay	Cowgirl Hat/Daisy Dukes
School Girl	Eraser Tops	School Girl Outfit
French Maid	Black Feathers	French Maid Outfit
Santa's Helper	Jingle Bells	Candy Cane Stockings
Baywatch Babe	Lifeguard Whistle	Bikini

4. Fill your containers, label them, print out your instruction tag.
5. Either wrap it up and give it to your husband, or set it out on your dresser and wait for him to notice... it won't take long, trust me!

We've made a printable sheet with our spices, but this is one gift for you to get creative with!

Use what you have, add a few things here and there...

Have fun!
