COCOA CUP CHALLENGE

Goal

Stack as many cups as high as you can in a given amount of time.
The highest tower wins!

Directions

Set a timer for 30 seconds to a minute! Make it challenging. Begin stacking cups and saucers to make a tower as high as you can.

When the timer goes off, put your hands up and step away. Your tower must stand on its own for 10 seconds.

Measure how high the tower is and make a note!

Remember the highest tower wins!!!

THE MISSING BELL

Goal

Be the first to find the missing bell!

Directions

Set boundaries before game play begins.

You can decide who goes first by drawing straws (or candy canes if you are in the Christmas spirit).

Whoever starts, takes the bell and has 15 seconds to hide it. After its been hidden and the person hiding it returns to the group, everyone runs off to find the bell (except for the one who hid it)!

Once you find the bell, you must return it to the owner!

The winner gets to hide the bell for the next round!

SANTA HATS GAME

Goal

Guess who has the object or be sneaky and evade detection!

Directions

Everyone will need a Santa Hat!

Choose an object to hide in a hat. The level of challenge will change depending on the object, some examples could include a scarf, a bell, an ornament, a pinecone, a candy cane, etc...

Place the object in one hat. Stick all the hats under the table and trade hats for 30 seconds, keeping the hats under the table.

When the timer goes off, everyone places their hat on their head.

If you guess who has the object first, you win!

Or if you have the object and you were sneaky enough that nobody guesses you, you win!

PASS THE PRESENT

Goal

Guess what the present is correctly!

Directions

You can decide who goes first by drawing straws (or candy canes if you are in the Christmas spirit).

Whoever starts gets to hold the present and they need to decide on an adjective to describe the perfect gift, i.e. expensive, fun, yummy, round, hard, heavy, light, perishable, batteries included, etc.

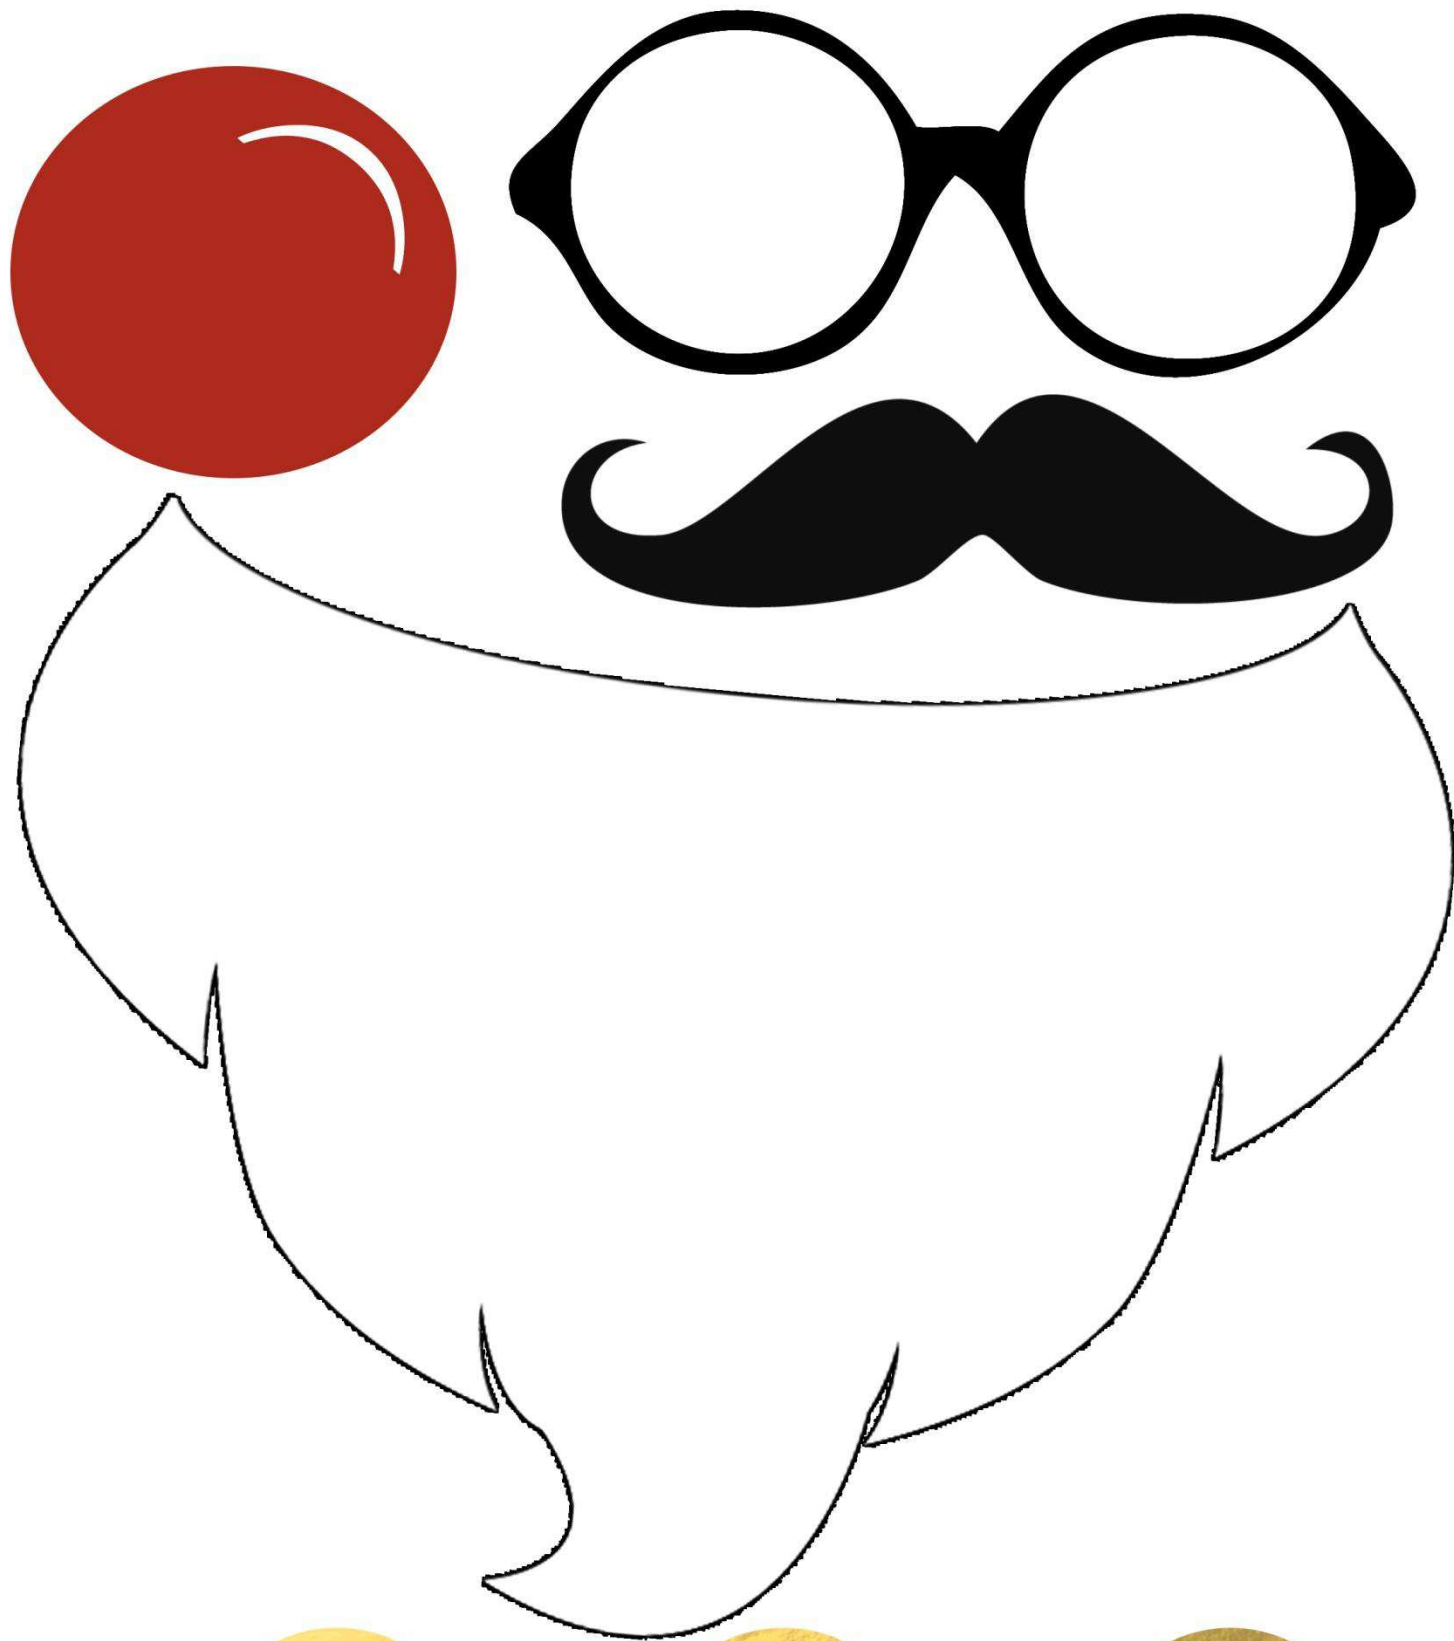

Then the person with the present says, "I have the perfect gift and want to share! What do you think it is?"

The rest of the players take turns guessing, if the gift they say can be described by the adjective, then they get to pass the present to that person!

Continue guessing until everyone gets to guess once!

Each round you guess correctly you get a point...

The person who gets the most guesses correct after a certain number of rounds wins!

HOHOHO!
