

Lingerie Card

- Print the outside of the card (you have a couple of choices... print this page as is, or print the next page and dress it up with some lace, feathers, tulle, etc)
- Print page 3 on the backside of the first page, making a card that you fold in half.
- Give to your sweetie, inviting them to have some "fun" with you tonight!

This one is without the skirt, so you can add your own, made out of feathers, lace, tulle (bridal veil stuff), or whatever your creative heart desires!

The inside of the card!
Add details here. ;)

(Print this on the backside of the first or second page, then trim and fold in half, creating a card! It will print on the inside right side of the card. There are no trim guidelines here, since you will trim based on the lines on the front of the card)
