Game Piece Instructions:
Cut the game pieces out along the solid gray line. Fold the pieces in half so each piece has a front and a back. Secure the two halves with glue or double-sided tape, but do not apply glue or tape to the bottom tabs. Butterfly the bottom tabs outward, and use them as stands for your game pieces.

Instructions for "Head of the Class"

1. The wife fills out "Her Questions to Answer" and the husband fills out "His Questions to Answer."
2. Roll the dice, to see who goes first. The person who rolls the highest number gets to have the first question read to them. {If you don't have a dice nearby, a fun game of paper-rock-scissors may do the trick – wink wink.}
3. The reading spouse will choose a card from their sheet to ask. If their spouse gets it correct, they move ahead 1 space, if they answer incorrectly, they move back 1 space. (If you have not left start, you do not move back.)
4. Once you have read a specific question mark it off in the left column. (You can choose to read the questions in order or not, just be sure to track which ones have been read.)
5. Take turns reading/answering questions. The first person to reach "the head of the class" is the relationship SMARTIE and receives the certificate!
